

AMONG THE PEOPLE WHO WORSHIP GOD

Commencement Sermon at Methodist Church This Morning.

DR. LINDSAY TO PREACH

Eminent Divine of Ocala Will Deliver a Sermon Full of Interest to Our People—Two Churches Withdraw Morning Service on That Account.

Owing to the fact that Rev. W. C. Lindsay of Ocala is here and will deliver the commencement sermon for East Florida Seminary at the Methodist church this morning, the Baptist and Presbyterian churches have abandoned their morning services, in order to permit members of the congregation to attend this service, and the congregation of both churches, as well as other churches, are invited to attend. Dr. Lindsay, who is one of the most eloquent preachers in the State, will fill the pulpit of Kavanaugh church this morning at half-past 10 o'clock. His subject will be appropriate to the occasion, and it is needless to add that the church will be well filled.

There will be Sunday school at the Methodist church at 9:30 o'clock, and meeting of the Junior Epworth League at 3 p. m., and Senior League at 4 p. m. Preaching by the pastor in the evening at 7:45. Subject, "Let Your Light Shine."

First Baptist Church, Rev. S. B. Rogers—Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. No morning service. Mr. Rogers will preach at Rocky Point in the afternoon, and at 7:45 p. m. will fill his own pulpit, talking on the great conventions at Kansas City and St. Louis, to which he was a delegate. The young people of this church will hold their services at 8 and 4 p. m.

Advent Christian Church—At 10:30 a. m. Elder Butler will fill the pulpit, preaching on "The Saint's Inheritance, or, the Abrahamic Promise." Elder Butler will also preach in the evening on "The Rich Man and Lazarus."

First Presbyterian Church—No morning service. 4 p. m., Sabbath school. Lesson topic, "Jesus Before Pilate." John 18:28-40. 7 p. m.,

Westminster League. Topic, "Growing Up For God." 7:45 p. m., evening service conducted by Rev. W. C. Lindsay, D. D.

The usual services will be held at the Holy Trinity and St. Patrick's Catholic churches.

MAJOR HAMILTON'S REPORT.

Says the Seminary is All Right and Thinks it Should be Supported.

Major W. R. Hamilton of the United States Army, who was detailed a few months ago by the War Department to make inspection of East Florida Seminary and other military schools, was evidently much impressed with the Seminary, since, a couple of weeks ago when he made his report, among other things he had this to say:

"East Florida Seminary rifles and military accoutrements were all in good condition. There is not a sufficient number (100) to completely equip the entire battalion of 129 cadets.

"The entire appearance of the cadets while at review, inspection and parade was military. Their conduct, both off duty and on, seemed excellent. They were bright boys, imbued with an excellent spirit, anxious to learn. At all times, around the campfires, in the streets of the town, or in and around barracks, they were orderly, well behaved, and saluted all officers.

"My own belief is that this is one of the few institutions that the government can well afford to extend every assistance and backing to, with the assurance that it will be returned with profit in the direction desired to the government."

Baptists Meet in Ninety-first Annual Session at St. Louis.

St. Louis, May 20.—A number of delegates to the general Baptist convention met by appointment at an early hour today and went to Bellefontaine cemetery to see the grave of John M. Peck, who came as the first Baptist missionary to St. Louis, in 1817. A brief service was held at the grave.

Today the ninety first annual meeting of the American Baptist missionary union began. Preliminary meetings of the Women's Foreign Missionary societies, and of the board of managers were held. The convention was then opened with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. T. A. Johnston, of Munroe, Mass., presided and delivered his annual address.

There is no question about its being the best, as it will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other treatment.
